REPORT OF DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE-IN-CHARGE

There must be one designated representative or pharmacist chosen as the designated representative-in-charge for each wholesaler or veterinary food-animal drug retailer (vet retailer)* location.

If the designated representative-in-charge leaves the employment of the wholesaler or vet retailer, a new designated representative-in-charge must be reported to the board within 30 days. DO NOT USE THIS FORM TO REPORT A CHANGE. Changes in the designated representative-in-charge must be reported on a Change of designated representative-in-Charge (form 17AE-1).

The licenses of all designated representatives or pharmacists working at the wholesaler or vet retailer must be current.

*Designated representative for vet retailers must have specific training in addition to that required for wholesale designated representatives.

NOTE: Under California law, the name used to describe any individual who is in charge of any wholesale drug premises (in California or elsewhere) will change on January 1, 2006, from the former name, exemptee, to designated representative. For conventional use, the board will refer to such an individual as a designated representative throughout this application.
