

Calibration

Purpose and Use

Key

Answers appear in bold:

1. The regulations states that equipment calibration is required to ...
  - a. facilitate inspection
  - b. provide accurate documentation
  - c. assure proper performance
  - d. identify qualified employees
2. Equipment is calibrated to ...
  - a. approve vendors
  - b. test mechanical skills
  - c. for purchasing decisions
  - d. assure accurate measurements
3. The task of calibrating uses ...
  - a. measurement standards of known accuracy
  - b. approved micrometers
  - c. sterilized equipment
  - d. all of the above
4. The purpose of conducting calibration is to detect, correct, or eliminate by adjustment.
  - a. True
  - b. False
5. Detecting instrument errors is important ...
  - a. for information to be documented in the annual report
  - b. to prevent product made out of specification
  - c. to determine when equipment is to be discarded
  - d. to identify poor work performance